

Great Lent 2026

Connecticut Deanery Mission Services

- |                         |  |   |
|-------------------------|--|---|
| March 16:00  | Sunday of Orthodoxylater time this week onlySpecial Pan-Orthodox Service celebrating the Triumph of Orthodoxy | St. Barbara's Greek Orthodox Church480 Racebrook Road, Orange      |
| March 84:00  | Saint Gregory PalamasDeanery Mission Vespers   | Christ the Savior Orthodox Church1070 Roxbury Road, Southbury      |
| March 154:00 | Veneration of the CrossPan-Orthodox Service  | St. Dimitrie's Romanian Orthodox Church504 Sport Hill Road, Easton |
| March 224:00 | Saint John ClimacusDeanery Mission Vespers   | St. Alexis Orthodox Church108 E Main St, Clinton                   |
| March 294:00 | Saint Mary of EgyptService of Holy Unction   | Three Saints Orthodox Church26 Howard Ave, Ansonia                 |
| April 54:00  | Palm Sunday/Holy Monday EveBridegroom Matins   | All Saints Orthodox Church205 Scarborough Street, Hartford         |

All services are followed by a reception.

The Connecticut Deanery organizes or supports these services so that we all might worship together and be encouraged by one another in the midst of our Lenten efforts. They represent unique opportunities to participate in the riches of Orthodoxy. These evenings are also beautiful occasions to grow in knowledge and fellowship, beyond your own parish community. Come and see!